The Wheaton Arts Parade invites artists and residents of all ages, especially those in Wheaton and Montgomery County, to make art and join the parade. There will be floats but no cars, just people pushing, pulling, carrying, wearing and performing their art.

Whether or not you join the parade, come and watch them strut their stuff and enjoy the Arts Festival. More than 40 local artists will have their work on display and for sale. There will be two stages of live performances, children's art activities, and a Food Court featuring some of Wheaton's favorite restaurants.
