Hiring Practices and Business Regulations

with

Barbara Berschler, J.D., LL.M., of Press & Dozier, LLC will give a presentation about Hiring Practices in the County. Barbara is a gifted business attorney who provides legal guidance, support, and coaching to her clients in business purchases, franchises, and general business matters in the county and state.

Judith Stephenson, Small Business Navigator of the Montgomery County Dept. of Economic Development, will talk about the County Regulatory Reform Initiative, which has been trying to identify regulations that can be streamlined or changed to help make the Government more conducive to business support and growth.

Judy will present the results of the Business Services Survey, and some initial thoughts as to what projects they will be focusing on in response.
